

Music Festivals All Europe Countries Slovenia Open Call

Apply to Perform at MENT 2026 in Ljubljana

CREATIVESUNITE

Co-funded by the European Union

MENT Ljubljana invites bands, solo performers, live acts, and DJs from across Europe to apply for a chance to perform at its 12th edition. Taking place from 18–21 February 2026 in Ljubljana, MENT brings together international audiences and music professionals for four days of live shows, networking, and creative exchange.

Deadline for applications: 14 August 2025 (until 18:00, Slovenia time)

Organiser: MENT Ljubljana
Who It's For: Emerging and established artists from European countries with live-ready music and performance material

Apply here.

About MENT

MENT Ljubljana is a showcase festival and conference that highlights new and upcoming European artists. Held every February across venues in Ljubljana, it's a place to discover live music, build professional connections, and reach international audiences. Known for its diverse and well-curated lineup, MENT is an important platform for fresh talent in the independent music scene.

Who Can Apply

Applications are open to European artists, bands, solo performers, live acts, and DJs, with live experience and publicly accessible music and video content. Artists from beyond Europe may also be considered. Diversity, originality, and performance quality are key selection criteria.

What's Offered

Selected artists will receive:

- A live performance slot during MENT 2026 (18–21 February)
- Exposure to a wide network of international industry professionals
- Media coverage and promotional support
- Access to MENT's conference and networking programme

Note: Travel and accommodation costs are not guaranteed and depend on case-by-case arrangements.

How to Apply

Submit your application via the official MENT 2026 Application Form. The deadline to apply is 14 August 2025.

For more information please visit MENT's official website.

Image: MENT Ljubljana, photo: Katja Goljat