

Events All Europe Countries COVID 19

ACMC - Arts & Cultural Management Conference 2022

AMCM 5th Edition with the theme: Space for More Voices and New Ways

3 - 5 February 2022
Bilbao & Online

As a joint initiative with ENCATC, the Arts and Cultural Management Conference \(ACMC\) invites students and emerging professionals to a unique platform to present their research, to exchange knowledge and to expand their professional network.

ACMC 2022 will physically take place in Bilbao, Spain at the University of Deusto, however simultaneously it is planned to stream the conference online so that it can remain global, stay connected and create real social change in multifaceted ways. ACMC 2022 will provide participants with the unique opportunity to engage, over the course of three days, with emerging researchers, professionals, academics, artists and local collectives' initiatives in insightful conversations about the arts and cultural sector.

A variety of different formats (paper presentations, lectures, workshops) will allow new theory and practice-based insights, as well as sharing and exploring within this diverse and international group. Inputs from international keynote speakers will initiate further discussions on the topics.

The theme of this year: "A SPACE MORE VOICES AND NEW WAYS" with the following subthemes

- Ways to hear more voices: visibility, diversity, inclusion, underrepresentation.
- Ways to address stringent current challenges: accessibility, digitalisation, mental health.
- Ways to be adapted and integrated in the field: sustainability, entrepreneurship.

The 2022 edition is co-organised by the University of Deusto and Cultura Con Publicos.

Find more information here.
Register here.

