BauTopia 2 | Culture & Creativity conference & FLIP conference

10-12 October 2022

Porto, Viana do Castelo + online

This second edition of BAU TOPIA will be held on the occasion of the next Stakeholder gathering of both the European Creative Hubs Network & Creative FLIP Project. The entire team is thrilled to invite you to this hybrid event titled Glocalization in culture and creativity. Empowering the sector through knowledge exchange.

The conference will tackle important topics for the cultural and creative stakeholders today: access to different financing resources and protection of Intellectual Property Rights, the future of arts education and education through the arts, glocalization and specific cultural policies for the non-urban and rural areas and their cultural scene, innovation, and many others. How to bring forward Collaborative cross-sectoral initiatives that are based on the principle of equality of stakeholders and empathy? How can mobility programs act as a springboard for the establishment of sustainable and long-term partnerships among the hub community?

Discover the conference agenda for details and location of each session throughout three days in between Porto, Viana do Castelo and online.
