

Open Call for Experts

All CCS and Cross-sectoral | Belgium | News | Open Call

Cultural Relations Platform is looking for experts

The Cultural Relations Platform is recruiting experts in the field of international cultural relations for an assignment in the development of learning and training materials.

The Cultural Relations Platform is recruiting several experts from February to June 2024 in the field of international cultural relations for an assignment in the development of learning and training materials which will be delivered to staff of global EU Delegations as well as EU institutions at headquarters in Brussels. The position is open to practitioners, researchers, academics and/or policy makers with demonstrated experience in developing international cultural relations-related content in the forms of publications or materials relating for the purposes of learning or training. Experts do not need to be professors, academics or lecturers for this assignment. The materials will be used for an online training with various digital modules focusing on different global issues linking to culture, such as:

- Culture & Public Diplomacy
- Culture & Creative Industries for Economic Growth
- Culture, Conflict Prevention & Peacebuilding
- Culture & Youth
- Culture & Sustainable Development
- Culture & Social Cohesion
- Culture, Human Rights & Freedom of Speech
- Intercultural Dialogue & Cultural Awareness
- Culture & Disinformation
- Culture & Protecting Cultural Heritage in Conflict Zones

A full description of the profile of required experts as well as the timeframe can be found in the open call for experts.

The Cultural Relations Platform is an EU-funded project that connects cultural practitioners worldwide for dialogue, exchange and co-operation. It also provides expertise to the European Union (EU) in the field of international cultural relations.

Assignments should start on February 2024 until June 2024.

Deadline: 15 January 2024 (Mon) 9.00AM CET.

All interested applicants are invited to apply using the CV template to cultural.relations.platform@goethe.de

Find more information here