

Events | All Europe Countries

Culture Moves Europe: Sustainability Training for Artists and Cultural Professionals Europe

Artists and cultural professionals are invited to participate in a free online sustainability training session organized by Culture Moves Europe, designed to help applicants build sustainable practices into their mobility projects.

Registration Deadline: Registration will be closed two weeks before the respective session, that is on the 9th of October.

Organizer: Culture Moves Europe

Who is it for: Artists and cultural professionals applying for or participating in Culture Moves Europe mobility projects

Training Date: October 9, 2024, 11am-1pm (CEST)

Find the registration form here.

About Culture Moves Europe Sustainability Training:

Culture Moves Europe supports artists and cultural professionals in integrating sustainable practices into their mobility projects, from planning to project completion. To further this goal, a free training session will be held, offering practical advice on minimizing the environmental impact of projects.

Upcoming Training on Environmental Sustainability:

The session will cover strategies for sustainability during project development, helping participants reduce their environmental footprint while meeting artistic and cultural goals.

The session will be held online and is free of charge. For more details and to register, visit the Goethe Institut's registration form linked on the Culture Moves Europe website.

Image Credit: © European Union