ETC Theatres Lobby for the Arts in Europe

The 42 members from 25 countries of the European Theatre Convention have united their voices to save and support theatres.

Artistic and cultural diversity are at the heart of Europe's rich traditions and innovative spirit to create the future. The implications of the Covid-19 pandemic have shaken up the continent and disclosed the weakest points. The cultural sector was the first one to close and is amongst the last to open again. Do we have a lobby for the arts in Europe to safeguard the rich diversity, that is so important for the social health of the continent and the wellbeing of all people?
