EUNIC Cluster Fund 2024: Call for Sustainable Cultural Projects

EUNIC invites clusters worldwide to submit innovative projects that emphasize sustainability and cultural relations, fostering international collaboration and addressing pressing global challenges through diverse cultural activities.

Deadline: November 6, 2024

Organizer: EUNIC Global
Who is it for: All EUNIC clusters, cultural organizations, and partners involved in international cultural relations
Prize: Up to €20,000 per project, covering a maximum of 60% of the total project budget. Projects will be implemented throughout 2025.

Apply here.

What is it about:
The EUNIC Cluster Fund aims to co-finance clusters' projects that contribute to the principles of international cultural relations and align with the EUNIC Strategic Framework for 2020-2024. The fund supports projects that emphasize international collaboration, fair partnerships, and active participation from all partners. This year, the call strongly welcomes projects addressing sustainability in all its forms, in line with EUNIC's commitment to the UN's 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the Sustainable Development Goals.

Application Details:
Applications must involve at least three Full EUNIC Members and include collaboration with key local cultural partner organizations. The application process requires the submission of an application form, estimated budget, and Cluster Strategy by 6 November 2024 (at 23:59 CET) to clusters@eunicglobal.eu. An expert jury will select the proposals, with notifications sent by the end of November 2024.
