

All Europe Countries International Organisations and initiatives Literature & Books COVID 19

European and International Booksellers Federation (EIBF)

CREATIVESUNITE

Co-funded by the European Union

EIBF represents national booksellers associations in the European Union and beyond aiming to represent its members and their interests on a global platform, before the European institutions and other international organisations. EIBF provides policymakers with professional information about the economic, cultural, and educational role booksellers play, and advocate for book-friendly policies, for the benefit of all readers.

europeanbooksellers.eu

Actions:

- World Book Day – authors, publishers and booksellers call for international support.