European Culture & Creativity Days

In October 2023 EIT Culture & Creativity will hit the road to meet stakeholders across Europe. The events will be hosted in the six cities hosting EIT Culture & Creativity Co-Location Centers (CLCs).

EIT Culture & Creativity, the ninth Knowledge and Innovation Community (KIC) supported by the European Institute of Innovation and Technology (EIT), a body of the European Union, is thrilled to announce more details and registration information for the upcoming European Culture & Creativity Days taking place from 10–25 October 2023.

Together with the partners hosting the subsidiaries in Amsterdam, Barcelona, Bologna, Helsinki, Kosice, and Vienna, EIT Culture & Creativity is putting together exciting programmes and contents for stakeholders. Inspiring sessions with artists, innovators, investors, and policymakers will spark the flame across Europe.

CLC South East Europe & Alpes: 10 – 11 October. Vienna, Austria
What does Culture & Creativity have to do with materials, production, and manufacturing? Kreativwirtschaft Austria (KAT) is organising an exciting deep dive in cross-sectoral collaborations, supported by Principal Partner Vienna Business Agency, to get inspired right before the Creative Skills Week 2023.

CLC South: 13 October. Bologna, Italy
Culture is the creativity of the past: ART-ER invites you to explore how research infrastructures, supercomputers, digital skills and outstanding human competencies can unleash creativity and thus shape culture, society and the economic wellbeing of the future.

CLC North West: 16–17 October. Amsterdam, the Netherlands

City of Amsterdam is a pioneer for an inclusive and equitable society. Learn more about how culture & creativity contribute to social innovation and cohesion, while developing innovative solutions for pressing social challenges.

CLC East: 18-19 October. Kosice, Slovakia

It's been 10 years since Kosice was European Capital of Culture, and CIKE is rocking it since! You will explore how arts, technology and culture can improve our wellbeing and quality of life. You may as well enjoy the amazing the Art & Tech Days while you are there.

CLC North: 24-25 October. Helsinki, Finland

Feel the energy of the crowd in Helsinki! Kaapeli is all about bringing together people, creating shared experiences, and building ecosystems. Create new stories and change the world for the better.

CLC South West: 25 October. Barcelona, Spain

What is culture and creativity in today's digital world? Whether you are riding the hype or watching from the barrier, do not miss Eurecat's proposition and take part in the exciting debate about the cliffs and bridges of being creative in the era of generative, immersive and extended reality technologies.
