About the Residency

This residency explores digital sovereignty and algorithmic influence on society and democracy. It encourages artists to create works that address these themes and reimagine technological sovereignty. Artists may develop new projects or expand existing ones, culminating in presentations at the hosting institutions and a final exhibition at Galerie Rudolfinum in Prague.

Eligibility

Applicants must be from or reside long-term in one of these countries:

Albania, Armenia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Georgia, Hungary, Kosovo, Latvia, Lithuania, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Poland, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Ukraine.

Participants will receive:

- Fully funded residency: Travel, accommodation, stipend, and production budget
- Monthly stipend: €1,000 net
- Production support: Up to €3,000
- Collaboration with experts in AI, digital media, and social impact
- Access to institutional infrastructures and exhibition opportunities
- Final exhibition at Galerie Rudolfinum, Prague
