Funding The Arts: Creating an Erasmus+ Proposal

The Spring 2024 edition of “Funding the Arts” by RESEO and Materahub aims to provide cultural organisations with the expertise, strategies, and insights necessary to craft a compelling Erasmus+ proposal.

Birgitte Holt Nielsen, Producer, Figaros (Denmark)

ABOUT THE ERASMUS+ PROGRAMME

While Erasmus+ is traditionally associated with the formal education sector, the programme offers many opportunities for international mobility and cooperation for artists and arts institutions involved in education, outreach and professional development.

ABOUT “FUNDING THE ARTS”

The course will offer a practical, hands-on approach to developing an application for Erasmus+ strategic partnership funding. With a budget of €26 billion, Erasmus+ 2021-2027 offers more mobility and cooperation opportunities than ever before.

The course will focus on Erasmus+ Partnerships for Cooperation, or transnational projects designed to develop and share innovative practices and promote cooperation, peer learning, and exchanges of experiences in the fields of education, training, and youth.
