About the project

As part of the global PhotoVogue initiative and aiming to support and promote Ukraine's creative talents on the international scene, Vogue Ukraine is launching a new initiative in contemporary photography and a dedicated digital platform.

Photo Vogue Ukraine Futurespective Open Call invites young and emerging talents specialising in fashion and art photography to participate. It is open to those whose work has already appeared in Vogue Ukraine's pages and to new names waiting to be discovered.

This year, the Call is focusing on the topic of the future and the ways young generation anticipates and envisions it. The shortlist curated by Vogue Ukraine team will be presented to the international jury of industry professionals, curators and photographers. As part of this year's FUTURESPECTIVE initiative, Vogue Ukraine will host a photo exhibition in Kyiv (May) and London (September). They will feature works by selected finalists. One selected artist will be granted a special project to be published in the print edition of Vogue Ukraine in 2025.
