About the residency

Supported by the Palestinian Residency Patrons Circle, Gasworks offers an eleven-week fully funded residency in London for emerging and mid-career Palestinian artists based anywhere in the world.

The residency programme supports artistic research, experimentation, and professional exchange, providing residents with curatorial, administrative, and pastoral guidance while encouraging self-directed practice.

The selected artist will receive:

- A private studio at Gasworks with 24-hour access
- Single-room accommodation in Gasworks' Residency House
- Economy return flights, visa support, and transfers
- Weekly living stipend (£175) and materials budget (£800)
- Prepaid London travel card (zones 1–2)
- Studio visits with curators, artists, and educators
- Participation in an Open Studio presentation on 12 September 2026
- A residency profile and short video feature on Gasworks' website

Eligibility:

- Open to emerging and mid-career contemporary visual artists based in Palestine or of Palestinian origin living abroad
- Applicants must have a moderate level of spoken English

- Residency is contingent upon visa approval
