About i Light Singapore 2025:

i Light Singapore is an annual festival that invites artists to explore themes of sustainability and how light art can spark conversations on our environment, economy, culture, and collective decision-making. For the 2025 edition, artists are called to submit proposals that align with the curatorial theme "To Gather," drawing inspiration from the color red, symbolizing unity in diversity. This theme encourages artists to create installations that highlight the importance of community and collective existence.

Eligibility:

This open call is for local, regional, and international artists, including architects, designers, and multimedia specialists, to submit proposals for light art installations. Applicants are encouraged to explore innovative interpretations of sustainability and unity through light art.

Support and Budget:

Each selected artist will receive a budget of 18,000 SGD (approx. 12.490 euros), covering:

- Artist and design fees
- Artwork production costs
- Additional logistics (e.g., air freight, local transportation)
- Additional airfare and accommodation (beyond what is provided by the festival)
- Special maintenance and operation costs (if applicable)

The festival will also provide support for:

- Venue liaison and site management
- Local regulatory approvals
- Transportation and insurance for the artwork
- General maintenance and security of the artwork during the festival
- Airfare and accommodation for one person (up to five days) for the installation of the artwork and participation in the festival opening
