Incubator 2024: Unlocking Opportunities for Your Cultural Project

Brace yourself for an extraordinary opportunity this autumn, as the ENCC's renowned training program on European project writing lands in the historic heart of Valletta, Malta.

This coming autumn, the ENCC's flagship training programme on European project writing will land in Malta. The retreat will be hosted by local cultural centre Spazju Kreattiv at their stunning premises in the St James Cavalier fortress, at the heart of Valletta.

If you aspire to take your project to the European level, this is your chance. Incubator 2024 will offer expert mentoring tailored to your project idea, networking opportunities with other socio-cultural professionals from all over Europe, and a rich study visits programme that will take you through Valletta's vibrant cultural life.

This edition's main focus will be culture in non-urban and peripheral areas, but projects related to any other domain of socio-culture are welcome. Read the call in full here and apply by May 15th, 2024 at 23:59 CET.
