

Events International Festivals COVID 19

International Festivals and Policy in light of COVID-19

Perspectives from the Festival Cities Network on the impacts of COVID-19 on international festivals and policy, a webinar.

The webinar is part of the UNESCO ResiliArt online debate series with key industry professionals. The series aims to raise awareness about the far-reaching impact of the pandemic on the culture sector as well as the importance of cultural and creative industries for economic development and social cohesion.

Read more information and register here.