Interreg Europe | Event Cultural and Creative Industries II

The event will take place on Tuesday 7th February 2023 online.

On 7 February, from 14:00 to 15:30 CET, the Policy Learning Platform is hosting the second episode of the Cultural and Creative Industries series. This episode will focus on the sustainability and the social impact of the industries.

In the "Cultural and Creative Industries II: Towards a more social Europe" webinar, you will explore and discuss approaches to how the cultural and creative industries contribute to a more social Europe, beyond their economic contribution. This includes topics such as:

- Culture and heritage as an enabler for economic regeneration.
- Fostering social cohesion.
- Facilitating industrial and social changes, including climate adaptation and mitigation.
