About the JM Jazz World Orchestra

The JM Jazz World Orchestra is more than just a jazz ensemble—it's a unique opportunity to collaborate with top young jazz talents from around the globe. Selected musicians will gather for intensive rehearsals in the picturesque village of Grožnjan, Croatia, before embarking on a European tour, performing at prestigious jazz venues and festivals across Slovenia, Germany, Austria, Italy, and beyond.

What Makes JMJWO Special?

- Global Collaboration: Work with outstanding young jazz musicians from different countries.
- Expert Mentorship: Train and perform under the guidance of internationally renowned jazz mentors and composers.
- Tour Across Europe: Play in top venues and jazz festivals, gaining professional touring experience.
- Cultural Exchange: Engage with diverse audiences and fellow musicians, creating lifelong memories and connections.
