Lighthouse Sessions | A series of talks on welcoming Ukrainian refugees

The European Creative Hub Network is inviting creative professionals to share their experience in dealing with the migrant crisis.

The European Creative Hub Network is organising a set of discussions and case studies, best practices and tools for effective support. The aim is to create a learning opportunity and debate for the hubs dealing with welcoming people in vulnerable situations for the first time and with no past experience.

This training is open to all hub managers, creative and coworking spaces, cultural organisations and all the structures that want to contribute to the situation and have the space and capacity to.

The meetings will be held online on live webinars of 1hr30m and the videos will be available for later consultation on their website. Two guests will be hosted per session.

Session #1 - Friday 22nd April 2022, 11:00-12:30 CET
