Museums & Schools Summit 2025: Call for Speakers

MuseumNext invites proposals for the Museums & Schools Summit, a virtual event on April 29–30, 2025, exploring the evolving partnerships between museums and educational institutions. This two-day summit will highlight innovative strategies and programs that use museums as dynamic spaces for learning and collaboration.

Deadline for proposals: January 7, 2025

Conference Dates: April 29–30, 2025

Organizer: MuseumNext

Location: Online (12 PM–5 PM London Time)

Who is it for: Museum professionals, educators, and thought leaders in museum-school collaborations

About the Summit

The Museums & Schools Summit 2025 will bring together educators, museum professionals, and innovators to discuss how museums can inspire curiosity and creativity in learners of all ages. With a focus on actionable insights and practical examples, the summit will provide a platform for exploring strategies to integrate museum resources into education and foster impactful partnerships.
