About OneBeat 2025:
OneBeat 2025 is an innovative, month-long U.S.-based music exchange program that invites 25 talented musicians from around the world to participate in an immersive residency. During this time, participants will create, produce, and perform original music, while developing strategies for using the arts to foster civic engagement and community building. The program culminates in a multi-city tour across the U.S., where fellows will perform, collaborate with local artists, and lead workshops for youth and community organizations.

Application Details: Applications must be submitted through the OneBeat online application portal by the deadline. Selected fellows will be notified by December 31, 2024.
