Nearly 400 Film Industry Figures Condemn the Israeli Atrocities in Gaza

Prominent film industry figures, including Pedro Almodóvar, Yorgos Lanthimos, Richard Gere and Susan Sarandon, released an open letter condemning Israel's genocidal actions in Gaza, demanding artistic solidarity, breaking the industry's silence

At the 2025 Cannes Film Festival, nearly 400 prominent figures from the international film industry, including actors, directors, and producers such as Richard Gere, Susan Sarandon, Pedro Almodóvar, Mark Ruffalo, Javier Bardem, and Ruben Östlund, released an open letter condemning what they described as Israel's 'genocide' in Gaza. Published in the French newspaper Libération and the US magazine Variety, the letter called on the film community to "rise" and "name reality," criticising the industry's silence and passivity in the face of the ongoing violence and humanitarian catastrophe in Gaza.

The letter paid tribute to Fatma Hassouna, a 25-year-old Palestinian freelance photojournalist who was the subject of Sepideh Farsi's documentary Put Your Soul on Your Hand and Walk. The film was selected for the ACID section at Cannes. Ms. Hassouna was killed in an Israeli airstrike on 16 April 2025, alongside ten of her family members, just one day after the film's selection was announced. The letter highlighted her death as emblematic of the dangers faced by journalists and artists in Gaza, noting that over 200 journalists have been killed since October 2023.

The letter details that, just weeks earlier in March, Palestinian filmmaker Hamdan Ballal, winner of an Oscar for his film No Other Land, was 'brutally attacked by Israeli settlers and then kidnapped by the army before being released under international pressure'. It notes that the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences was pushed to apologise for not adequately supporting him.

At the festival's opening ceremony, Cannes jury president Juliette Binoche paid tribute to Fatima Hassouna, hinting at a possible further statement or gesture from the festival in response to the ongoing situation. Binoche had been initially reported as a signatory to the open letter, though her name did not appear on the final published list. She told reporters, "You'll maybe understand it a little later," suggesting that the festival might address the issue more directly during its proceedings.

The letter follows:

Fatma Hassona was 25 years old.

She was a Palestinian freelance photojournalist. She was targeted by the Israeli army on 16 April 2025, the day after it was announced that Sepideh Farsi's film "Put Your Soul on Your Hand and Walk," in which she was the star, had been selected in the ACID section of the Cannes Film Festival.

She was about to get married.

Ten of her relatives, including her pregnant sister, were killed by the same Israeli strike.

Since the terrible massacres of 7 October 2023, no foreign journalist has been authorised to enter the Gaza Strip. The Israeli army is targeting civilians. More than 200 journalists have been deliberately killed. Writers, film-makers and artists are being brutally murdered.

At the end of March, Palestinian filmmaker Hamdan Ballal, who won an Oscar for his film "No Other Land," was brutally attacked by Israeli settlers and then kidnapped by the army, before being released under international pressure. The Oscar Academy's lack of support for Hamdan Ballal sparked outrage among its own members and it had to publicly apologize for its inaction.

We are ashamed of such passivity.

Why is it that cinema, a breeding ground for socially committed works, seems to be so indifferent to the horror of reality and the oppression suffered by our sisters and brothers?

As artists and cultural players, we cannot remain silent while genocide is taking place in Gaza and this unspeakable news is hitting our communities hard.

What is the point of our professions if not to draw lessons from history, to make films that are committed, if we are not present to protect oppressed voices?

Why this silence?

The far right, fascism, colonialism, anti-trans and anti-LGBTQIA+, sexist, racist, islamophobic and antisemitic movements are waging their battle on the battlefield of ideas, attacking publishing, cinema and universities, and that's why we have a duty to fight.

Let's refuse to let our art be an accomplice to the worst.

Let us rise up.

Let us name reality.

Let us collectively dare to look at it with the precision of our sensitive hearts, so that it can no longer be silenced and covered up.

Let us reject the propaganda that constantly colonizes our imaginations and makes us lose our sense of humanity.

For Fatma, for all those who die in indifference.

Cinema has a duty to carry their messages, to reflect our societies.

Let's act before it's too late.
