

All CCS and Cross-sectoral Spotlight All Europe Countries News Open Call

Our Picks | Cultural and Creative Open Calls in January

New year comes with new open calls! Check out January's funding opportunities and mobility schemes dedicated to the cultural and creative world.

Creatives Unite has gathered open calls from all over Europe dedicated to the Cultural and Creative Sector. We keep an eye on available opportunities targeted to artists and creatives and make sure you don't miss the upcoming deadlines. This month we gathered open calls for fundings and residencies that will complete the application process during January. Take a careful look, choose your suitable project or initiative and get ready to apply!

Matadero | Art curators residency

Are you an art curator that wants to connect with Spain? Matadero's Centre for Artists in Residence and LOOP are inviting curators to an art residency to get to know the artistic contexts of Madrid and Barcelona. The project aims to promote the professional development of art curators, bring different artists together and establish a context of backing and training. After the residency, the curator will schedule two sessions during the first quarter of 2025 as part of the Video Tuesdays programme at the Centre d'Arts Santa Mònica.

For Whom? Art curators

Countries: International except for artists from Madrid and Barcelona

Deadline: 08 January 2024

Apply here

Culture Moves Europe | Funding opportunities for residency hosts

Culture Moves Europe's second open call for residency hosts aims to provide financial support to organisations and artists from all Creative Europe countries. To become a host you should regularly organise artistic and cultural activities and have the capacity to implement an artistic and cultural residency project. Check the requirements and invite cultural professionals to take part in the residency project.

For Whom? Professionals in architecture, cultural heritage, design and fashion design, literary translation, music, performing arts, visual arts

Countries: Creative Europe Countries

Deadline: 16 January 2024

Apply here

Workplace Reimagined | Open call for artists

Do you have an idea on how the future of work should look like? Workplace Reimagined invites you to take part in an international challenge that aims to anticipate the evolving needs of a modern workforce that has increasingly embraced remote work. Grasp the opportunity to reshape the professional landscape, reflecting on the physical and digital realms and the need to prioritize the well-being of the people at work.

For Whom? Architects, designers, engineers, students and creative thinkers

Countries: International

Deadline: 18 January 2024

Apply here

Creative Europe | Cooperation opportunities

This is your chance to start a new collaboration! The action European Cooperation Projects supports projects involving organisations in the cultural and creative sectors of all sizes and from different countries to undertake sectoral or cross-sectoral activities. The project aims to create cross border collaborations on two objectives: To strengthen the transnational creation and circulation of European works and artists and to enhance the capacity of European cultural and creative sectors to nurture talents, to innovate, to prosper and to generate jobs and growth.

For Whom? All cultural and creative sectors, except for audio-visual content and/or exclusively composed of organisations from the audio-visual sector

Countries: All Europe Countries

Deadline: 23 January 2024

Apply here

Bothy Project | Residency for cross-disciplinary artists

The Bothy Project invites artists to go off-grid and take part in a residency at Sweeney's Bothy, a simple live-work space in a remote and spectacular part of Scotland. Bothy Project aims to seek a balance in its self-directed residencies between practitioners who have been on residencies before and those who have not. The project wants incorporate and promote equality, diversity, fairness and inclusion across all art forms.

For Whom? Professionals in visual art, craft & design, music, literature, performance and those working across disciplines or in collaboration

Countries: All Europe Countries and UK

Deadline: 28 January 2024

Apply here