Our Picks | Cultural and Creative Open Calls in October

It's not too late to check October's open calls on funding opportunities and mobility schemes;
dedicated to the cultural and creative world. We gathered them in one place to make things easier for you.

Creatives Unite has gathered open calls from all over Europe dedicated to the Cultural and Creative Sector. We keep an eye on available opportunities targeted to artists and creatives and make sure you don't miss the upcoming deadlines. This month we gathered open calls for fundings and cooperation opportunities that will complete the application process during October. Take a careful look, choose your suitable project or initiative and get ready to apply!

Pro Helvetia | Synergies Support for Research-Based Programmes

Pro Helvetia is going to support programmes that foster exchange between art, science and technology involving organisations in Switzerland and across the world. Activities like networking, residencies, research and exchange formats should provide a clear impact on the Swiss artistic and cultural scene. Proposals must be jointly submitted by a minimum of two organisations with one of them being a Swiss arts or cultural organization.

For Whom? Arts and cultural organisations Countries: International together with at least one Swiss organisation
Deadline: 02 October 2023

Pop the Vote! | Open Call for Changemakers

Pop the Vote is inviting young artists and students to become changemakers in their communities. The selected changemakers will mobilise citizens, especially underrepresented groups, using art and culture as tools to enhance political participation. Part of the programme includes training on activism, campaigning and the use of artistic expression as a political language. This is your chance to bring the thoughts and issues of your generation to surface!

For Whom? Artists
Countries: Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Italy, the Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Slovenia, Spain and Sweden
Deadline: 15 October 2023
