

Events Spotlight

Our Picks | Three events to attend in May

If you don't know the deal about next month's events, we got your back. We picked three events across Europe to attend in May.

Creatives Unite keeps an eye on events, conferences and trainings happening across Europe that connect and develop the Cultural and Creative Sector. This month we picked three events to attend related to artists' working conditions, community building and technology. The topics are exploring the most up to date issues in the public dialogue in relation to the cultural and creative sector and are daring to bring into discussion innovative methods and cross sectoral approaches. It's not too late to register!

Baltic Sea Region | Culture for Resilience Forum 2024

Do you want to find out the role of culture in societal resilience and community strengthening? Culture for Resilience Forum 2024 is an event that invites artists and creatives from around the world to connect and explore the link between culture and social resilience in times of change, underscoring the need to strengthen our communities. The participants will have the opportunity to network and build contacts with municipalities. If you are a professional connected to culture and social resilience in a municipal setting, then this event is not to be missed.

When? 07 - 08 May 2024

Where? Jakobstad/Pietarsaari, Finland

Register here.

Belgian Presidency of the Council of the European Union |

Seminar on Working Conditions of Artists in Europe

The European Parliament and the European Commission have been focusing a lot lately on the working conditions of artists and cultural and creative professionals. A seminar on the working conditions of artists in Europe organised by the Belgian Presidency of the Council of the European Union is the perfect place to discover the ongoing discussions on one of the most important topics in the Cultural and Creative Sectors. The seminar will focus on case studies of artists' statuses in Europe and case studies for fair practices in the cultural and creative sectors.

When? 16 May 2024

Where? Brussels, Belgium and online

Register here.

German Association for Asian Art | CAPAS 2024

How can art interact with science and technology? CAPAS2024 wants to explore performances that redefine traditional art forms and crossroads of modern science, technology, and Asian performing arts. The festival will give artists and creatives the opportunity to network and create collaborative projects between the arts and academia. Join a festival that brings performing arts into the spotlight and aims to bridge the sector with science and technology.

When? 27 May - 15 June 2024

Where? Göttingen, Germany

Register here.

