Our Picks | Three events to attend this April

If you don't know the deal about this month's events, we got your back. We picked three events across Europe to attend in April.

Creatives Unite keeps an eye on events, conferences and trainings happening across Europe that connect and develop the Cultural and Creative Sector. This month we picked three events to attend related to architecture and green practices that will push further the dialogue on sustainability, develop new ideas based on the constantly changing needs and challenges of the sector and educate the participants on passing the knowledge to their everyday community. It's not too late to register!

Architecture & The Media | European Conference 2023

Architecture & The Media is organising this year's conference raising the question on the role of social media in the dissemination of architecture. What opportunities do they offer compared to other media? And what risks, if any, are involved? The answer to these constantly emerging new age thoughts on the relationship between social media and the working environment will be discussed in an intense 10-day conference in Barcelona, Spain.
