Our Picks | Three events to attend this June

If you don't know the deal about this month's events, we got your back. We picked three events across Europe to attend in June.

Creatives Unite keeps an eye on events, conferences and trainings happening across Europe that connect and develop the Cultural and Creative Sector. This month we picked three events to attend related to sustainability, climate change and mental health. The topics are exploring the most up to date issues in the public dialogue in relation to the cultural and creative sector and are daring to bring into discussion widely controversial matters. It's not too late to register!

S+T+ARTS | MediaFutures Demo Days

S+T+ARTS is presenting the final event of MediaFutures Project, a three year European innovation project, aiming at contributing to high-quality media activities. The event will include a wide variety of artworks, tools and services created by the supported artists and startups as well as learnings, toolkit on misinformation and policy briefs. Experts from local and European organisations will be part of panels and keynotes focusing on the sustainability and visibility of a project. MediaFutures Demo Days will be a great opportunity of networking and exchange of visions and ideas.
