Policy Brief: CCIs engaging with Well-being and Health

This Policy Brief ‘Getting Better? CCIs Engaging with Well-being and Health: Building Inclusive Communities and Resilient Societies’ looks at the obstacles and opportunities and what actions or support measures are needed to facilitate increased cross-sectoral cooperation and innovation in this area.

This Policy Brief incorporates the inputs and ideas of many experts and specialists and it takes as its focus four themes:

- 1- What is the research telling us and how good is the traction between the research and the CCI sector?
- 2- Creating cross-innovation opportunities, incentivising CCI and well-being cross-sectoral co-operation and innovation.
- 3- COVID-19 as a CCI area of opportunity to improve community well-being and health.
- 4- What can CCIs offer in relation to mental health, well-being and resilience in the COVID-19 context?
