About the Residency Programme

The 2nd Artistic Residency Programme at the National Theatre of Greece offers three selected artists the chance to delve into Athens' dynamic theatre scene, engage in professional development, and deepen their craft. Residents will collaborate with National Theatre staff, gaining insights into its operations while exploring current artistic trends in Greece.

Residency Support Includes:

- Travel Expenses: Round-trip tickets to Athens from the artist's residence

- Accommodation and Living Expenses: Covered for the duration of the residency

Note: The programme does not provide a paid position, and participants must secure their own health insurance.
