About the Call:

ACMC 2024 offers a platform for artists from all over the world to amplify their voices, share unique visions, and connect with the international arts community. Artists across various mediums are invited to present their work at the ACMC.

Eligible art categories include:

Live Performers: Musicians, dancers, actors, and other stage performers who can captivate an audience.

Visual Artists: Painters, sculptors, and creators in any visual medium.

Street Artists: Artists who thrive in public spaces.

Installation Artists: Creators of immersive, spatial experiences.

Multimedia Artists: Interactive, digital, or video artists who blend media.

ACMC 2024 will be centered around the theme "Transgression and Collaboration," which explores the boundaries of artistic expression and the power of working together. This theme will be further enriched by an accompanying art exhibition, thoughtfully curated to complement and deepen the exploration of these ideas. Participating artists will have the opportunity to contribute to this dialogue through their work, helping to expand our collective understanding of art's role in pushing societal and cultural boundaries.

Application Details:

Artists from all disciplines are invited to submit their applications for consideration. Submissions should include a portfolio or examples of work and an artist statement. There are no specific funding provisions; however, accepted artists will receive substantial exposure through ACMC's platform and beyond.
