The EU will fully fund the Creative Europe desk in Ukraine

The European Union has announced that it will fully fund the Creative Europe Desk in Ukraine, according to a recent press release from the European Commission.

This move is part of the EU's ongoing efforts to support the development of the cultural and creative sectors in Ukraine. The Creative Europe Desk is a key resource for artists, cultural professionals, and organizations in Ukraine, providing information and support on funding opportunities, partnerships, and other resources available through the Creative Europe program. The extra €28 830 of support comes at a time of limited budget for the cultural sector in Ukraine.

The European Commissioner for Innovation, Research, Culture, Education and Youth, emphasized the importance of supporting the cultural and creative sectors in Ukraine, stating that "culture and creativity are essential for the development of a vibrant and inclusive society, and for the promotion of European values and identity."
