The Festival of the New European Bauhaus | Calls for applications

The European Commission is organising the second New European Bauhaus Festival and announced several open calls for artists and creatives.

The European Commission invites you to be part of the second New European Bauhaus Festival. The event will take place in Brussels in April 2024, accompanied by independent Satellite Events across European Union and beyond. You can participate or contribute to The Festival in more than one ways:

- By showcasing your project or prototype.
- Taking part in festival's art and culture program.
- Organising an independent satellite event.
- Becoming a media partner.

The Festival at a glance

With the working title “Resources for all”, the Festival brings together innovators, creators, scientists, people, and collectives from all walks of life to debate and shape our future that is sustainable, inclusive and beautiful. Let's explore together topics such as shelter and living environments, land and water, fashion and human wellbeing in light of the changing environment.

The Festivals programme will span four days across four tracks of activities:

- Forum - a platform for engaging discussions and the exchange of ideas surrounding the New European Bauhaus.
- Fair - a laboratory and exhibition highlighting projects and prototypes that align with and support the core values of the New European Bauhaus.
- Fest - a celebration that unites culture, art, and conviviality, serving as a moment of collective rejoicing, honouring freedom of expression and embracing radical, innovative, and disruptive ideas and visions.
- Satellite events: events and initiatives organised independently in Brussels and beyond, with core activities in line with the New European Bauhaus values.

Practical information

- Main event will take place in Brussels.
- The precise venue will be announced after an overview of all applications.
- The Festival applications are open for all to apply.
- The Festival will take place on 17-21 April 2024.
